

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Rythmes d'été: a variety of quality concerts in Vaudreuil-Dorion

Vaudreuil-Dorion, June 26, 2024 – The very popular outdoor Rythmes d'été concert series will be back this summer at Parc de la Maison-Valois. A lineup of very talented artists will be featured on stage every Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. Renowned singer Patsy Gallant will be first to hit the stage on July 9th, while France D'Amour, the embodiment of Quebec women's rock for more than 30 years, will close the series on August 13th.

The six artists will take turns thrilling the crowd with pop, dance, funk, soul and country-folk tunes bound to please every type of audience, according to the following schedule:

- July 9: Patsy Gallant
- July 16: Éléonore Lagacé
- July 23: Barnev Valsaint
- July 30: Fanny Bloom
- August 6 : Guillaume Lafond
- August 13: France D'Amour

All shows are free. For additional comfort, guests are invited to bring their chairs. In the event of uncertain weather, please note that the decision to cancel a show will be made on site at the very last minute.

Errances: Performing arts to be part of the concerts

The Errances performing arts festival is back for a third year, but under a brand-new formula. Twenty-minute in situ and itinerant performances will take place near the stage, preceding the concerts each week, at 7 p.m. Arts commissioner Thomas Duret has selected different projects from a variety of disciplines designed to please the general public such as theatre, dance, mask games and visual arts. Two performances will also be offered to the youth clientele during block parties on July 3rd at Parc Mozart and on July 17th at Parc Aurèle-Joliat, at 6:40 p.m.